

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of To-Day.

Just an hour before she was to be buried, and while relatives were weeping over her coffin, Mrs. Fred Martell at her home near Huntington, W. Va., last evening, pushed the lid from the casket and sat bolt upright.

The mourners fled in terror. Soon after they were gone the parson came to conduct the funeral services, and was astounded when Mrs. Martell met him at the door.

The woman's husband was too poor to have a doctor, and when the fall he swooned as fast for an undertaker who promptly put Mrs. Martell in a coffin.

She lay there from morning till evening. Had she not revived when she did she would have been put in a grave.

STRIKE OF TAILORS HITS CORNELL BOYS. A strike of tailors at Ithaca will temporarily confine a number of Cornell student "wrens" to their rooms, as they cannot get their fall clothes on time.

More than 800 suits ordered by students are affected by the strike. Tailors are not to blame for the wait, but the fashionable young men are in dismay. Many of them telegraphed out orders to New York.

RAT ARMY ATTACKS SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Rats attacked school children near Amagansett, L. I., yesterday, and bit several, among them Anna Sommer and Joseph Whiteman, whose wounds were covered by an Amagansett physician.

If you were a chemist—
And analysed a cake of P. & G.
(Procter & Gamble) Naphtha Soap and a cake of any other naphtha soap,
You would find that

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is considerably harder than the other.

That means that it will last longer—will do more work; and,
therefore, is cheaper.

You would also find that
P. & G. Naphtha Soap is made of much better materials than any other naphtha soap.

Finally, you would find that the washing power of P. & G. Naphtha Soap is very much greater than that of any competing soap. That is what makes P. & G. Naphtha Soap more valuable, ounce for ounce and cake for cake.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is for sale in almost every grocery in this city. The price is 5 cents a cake.
